Financial Aid: Northwest Girlchoir believes any chorister who loves to sing should be able to join our choir regardless of their family's ability to pay full tuition. PARTICIPATION GUIDELINES

Attendance Expectations—Concerts, Tech Rehearsals, Weekly Rehearsals

- Choristers are expected to participate in all Northwest Girlchoir concerts during the year. We count on all our choristers to be a part of the finished products (concerts) that we have been working so hard to prepare together for months in advance.
- Creating high-quality, captivating public performances is one of our main missions at Northwest Girlchoir, and we can only do so if choristers attend regular/weekly rehearsals and the Tech rehearsals.
 - Choristers are expected to maintain a regular/weekly rehearsal attendance average of 80% in order to sing in mainstage/ticketed concerts.
 - Choristers below 80% prior to mainstage/ticketed concert may be asked to do a part check to show that they are ready for the concert.
 - Choristers whose attendance is below 60% at the time of a concert will not be allowed to perform in that concert.
- Attendance at Tech rehearsals is mandatory in order to sing in mainstage/ticketed concerts.
- If a concert absence is unavoidable, please communicate that to your conductor by email at least two months in advance.
- Consistent, reliable attendance at rehearsals/ concerts is one important aspect in deciding a chorister's promotion to the next choir level.

UNIFORM INFORMATION

Members of Amore and Ensemble wear uniforms for concerts. Uniforms do much more than make our choirs look lovely on the stage. By dressing alike, our choristers come together as a single artistic entity uniting our separate talents into one voice. Many choristers also say that uniforms create a feeling of belonging to the choir family.

General rules of dress that apply to all choirs:

- All choristers in a Northwest Girlchoir uniform MUST WEAR DEODORANT. Even if your chorister does not regularly wear deodorant, she needs to with her uniform. This will help to extend the life of her uniform.
- Hair is to be off of the face and shoulders (i.e. ponytail or bun, bangs fastened away from the face) for all choristers.
- Barrettes or headbands should be black or "hair-colored"; no flowers or other adornments that will stand out from the hair.
- No jewelry (beyond stud-sized earrings). No bracelets, wristbands, or friendship bracelets.
- Make-up may be used in small amounts and should be tastefully applied, giving a natural look.
- Shoes should be plain and simple. Remember to check shoes often for fit; children's feet can grow very fast and what fits in December might be too small in June.

Uniform Upkeep

- Choristers are responsible for the maintenance and cleaning of their uniform during the year.
- If a uniform needs to be significantly mended, altered, or exchanged for a larger size, please contact the NWGC office.
- Uniforms will be issued in the early fall or January as singers join or are promoted. ALL UNIFORMS WILL BE COLLECTED AT THE END OF THE SEASON IN JUNE.
- If a uniform is lost or irreparably damaged, the chorister will be charged the replacement cost.

MUSIC FOLDERS

- The cost of music purchase and rental is included in tuition. All music and folders used by choristers are the property of Northwest Girlchoir.
- Folders can be taken home for practice but must be brought to every rehearsal. Singers who consistently forget their folders at rehearsal will not be allowed to take them home.
- Music folders must be left at the last rehearsal before each concert, so that old music can be filed and new music distributed before the next rehearsal. If there is an exception, choristers will be notified to turn in their folders at the concert location.
- Treat the folders and music with care—each season's folder and music are worth approximately $50, which will be charged to the chorister if the music folder is lost or damaged.
- Singers are provided a pencil at the beginning of the year and are expected to have a pencil with them at every rehearsal.
